

“Jesus, Judas, and Barabbas”

John 18:39-40; Matthew 27

Dr. Cliff McManis

January 10, 2010

Introduction:

1. Judas declares Jesus to be the spotless Lamb.

“Judas...returned the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, saying, ‘I have sinned by betraying innocent blood’ ” (Matthew 27:3-4)

“Jesus answered them...‘one of you is a devil’ ” (John 6:70)

“During supper, the devil having already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot...‘you are clean, but not all of you’ ” (John 13:2, 10)

“not one of them perished but the son of perdition, that the Scripture might be fulfilled” (John 17:12)

2. Barabbas lives because of Jesus the Substitute.

“Pilate...went out again to the Jews and said to them, ‘I find no guilt in Him. But you have a custom that I should release someone for you at the Passover; do you wish then that I release for you the King of the Jews?’ Therefore they cried out again, saying, ‘Not this Man, but Barabbas’ ” (John 18:38-40)

“Jesus, Judas, and Barabbas”

John 18:39-40; Matthew 27

Dr. Cliff McManis

January 10, 2010

Introduction:

1. Judas declares Jesus to be the spotless Lamb.

“Judas...returned the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, saying, ‘I have sinned by betraying innocent blood’ ” (Matthew 27:3-4)

“Jesus answered them...‘one of you is a devil’ ” (John 6:70)

“During supper, the devil having already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot...‘you are clean, but not all of you’ ” (John 13:2, 10)

“not one of them perished but the son of perdition, that the Scripture might be fulfilled” (John 17:12)

2. Barabbas lives because of Jesus the Substitute.

“Pilate...went out again to the Jews and said to them, ‘I find no guilt in Him. But you have a custom that I should release someone for you at the Passover; do you wish then that I release for you the King of the Jews?’ Therefore they cried out again, saying, ‘Not this Man, but Barabbas’ ” (John 18:38-40)